

Space insurance covers virtually all technical risk, with few exclusions, from launch through the life of a satellite

Space insurance is a critical enabler of innovation and investment

A significant insurance loss due to a collision in orbit will have an immediate and chilling effect on the space insurance market, and thus on the whole space industry

Responsible behavior is the baseline, not the aspiration

LEO Insured Values

